STAFF OF THE BALLARD HUDSON
SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL MACON, GA.

VOLUME 9

Our Editors Speak

Hi,

Another year, another yearbook. These pages which you are now viewing represent our effort to fulfill the task of bringing you another Tiger.

If you could reverse the ticking seconds to the beginning of this big, big project, you would find us in utter chaos. Amid our confusion were so many, many jobs to be done--pictures to be taken, subscriptions to be gotten, lay-outs to be drawn, deadlines to be met, stamping, writing, arranging, cutting . . .

Did we emerge victoriously? Well, you be the judge as you finger through these pages. We can only be certain of one thing--whether good or bad, "way out" or "way in," the 1968 Tiger has captured a lot of MOMENTS WE SHARED.

Your Editors,

Charles L. Shigamoff

G. L. Hall Jr.

Dedication

Miss Carrie L. Wright

It is with deep sincerity that the members of the year-book staff dedicate the 1968 Tiger to you.

We know that we bespeak the sentiment of Ballard-Hudsonites, both past and present, when we say that we appreciate your resourcefulness, service, helpfulness, and keen perspective of the students' problems, and above all, your unfaltering determination to train young minds in the principles of mathematics.

May God's richest blessings be upon you.

Mayor's Message

Office of the Mayor
Macon, Georgia

January 9, 1968

Yesterday is gone; today is swiftly wanning; and tomorrow's daybreak is struggling forcefully on time's horizon.

During the course of yesterdays, todays and tomorrows, time is of the essence--How we use this time is important. Whether we succeed or fail should be of concern.

Let me challenge you, each of you as an individual, to cultivate the desire to accomplish, the will to win out, the determination to be successful in these most perilous moments.

Through your sincere efforts, through your capability to dream new dreams, through your profound faith in our Divine Creator, may our generations yet unborn find what we leave a better place in which to live, progress and portray the virtues that all good men and women have held sacred through the eons.

Ronnie Thompson, Mayor
City of Macon

Superintendent's Message

Board of Public Education

2064 Vineville Avenue

Macon, Georgia 31204

To the Seniors of Ballard-Hudson Senior High School:

Being keenly aware of the successful accomplishment of this most important plateau in your lives and as each of you lift your eyes to wider horizons in pursuit of higher goals, we take pride in extending our sincere congratulations and best wishes.

We feel that you have been given the motivation and assistance necessary for each of you to be fond and proud of the MOMENTS YOU SHARED at Ballard-Hudson Senior High School and that you will continue your education and interest in all areas of human endeavor.

As you further prepare to face the challenges of the future of which this fascinating "Space Age" will have a tremendous impact, we wish to remind you of the many new and diversified opportunities that will demand richer and added experiences for effective citizenship in our democracy.

May this record of your years and the MOMENTS YOU SHARED add security to your lives and be considered one of your personal achievements.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes to each of you, I remain

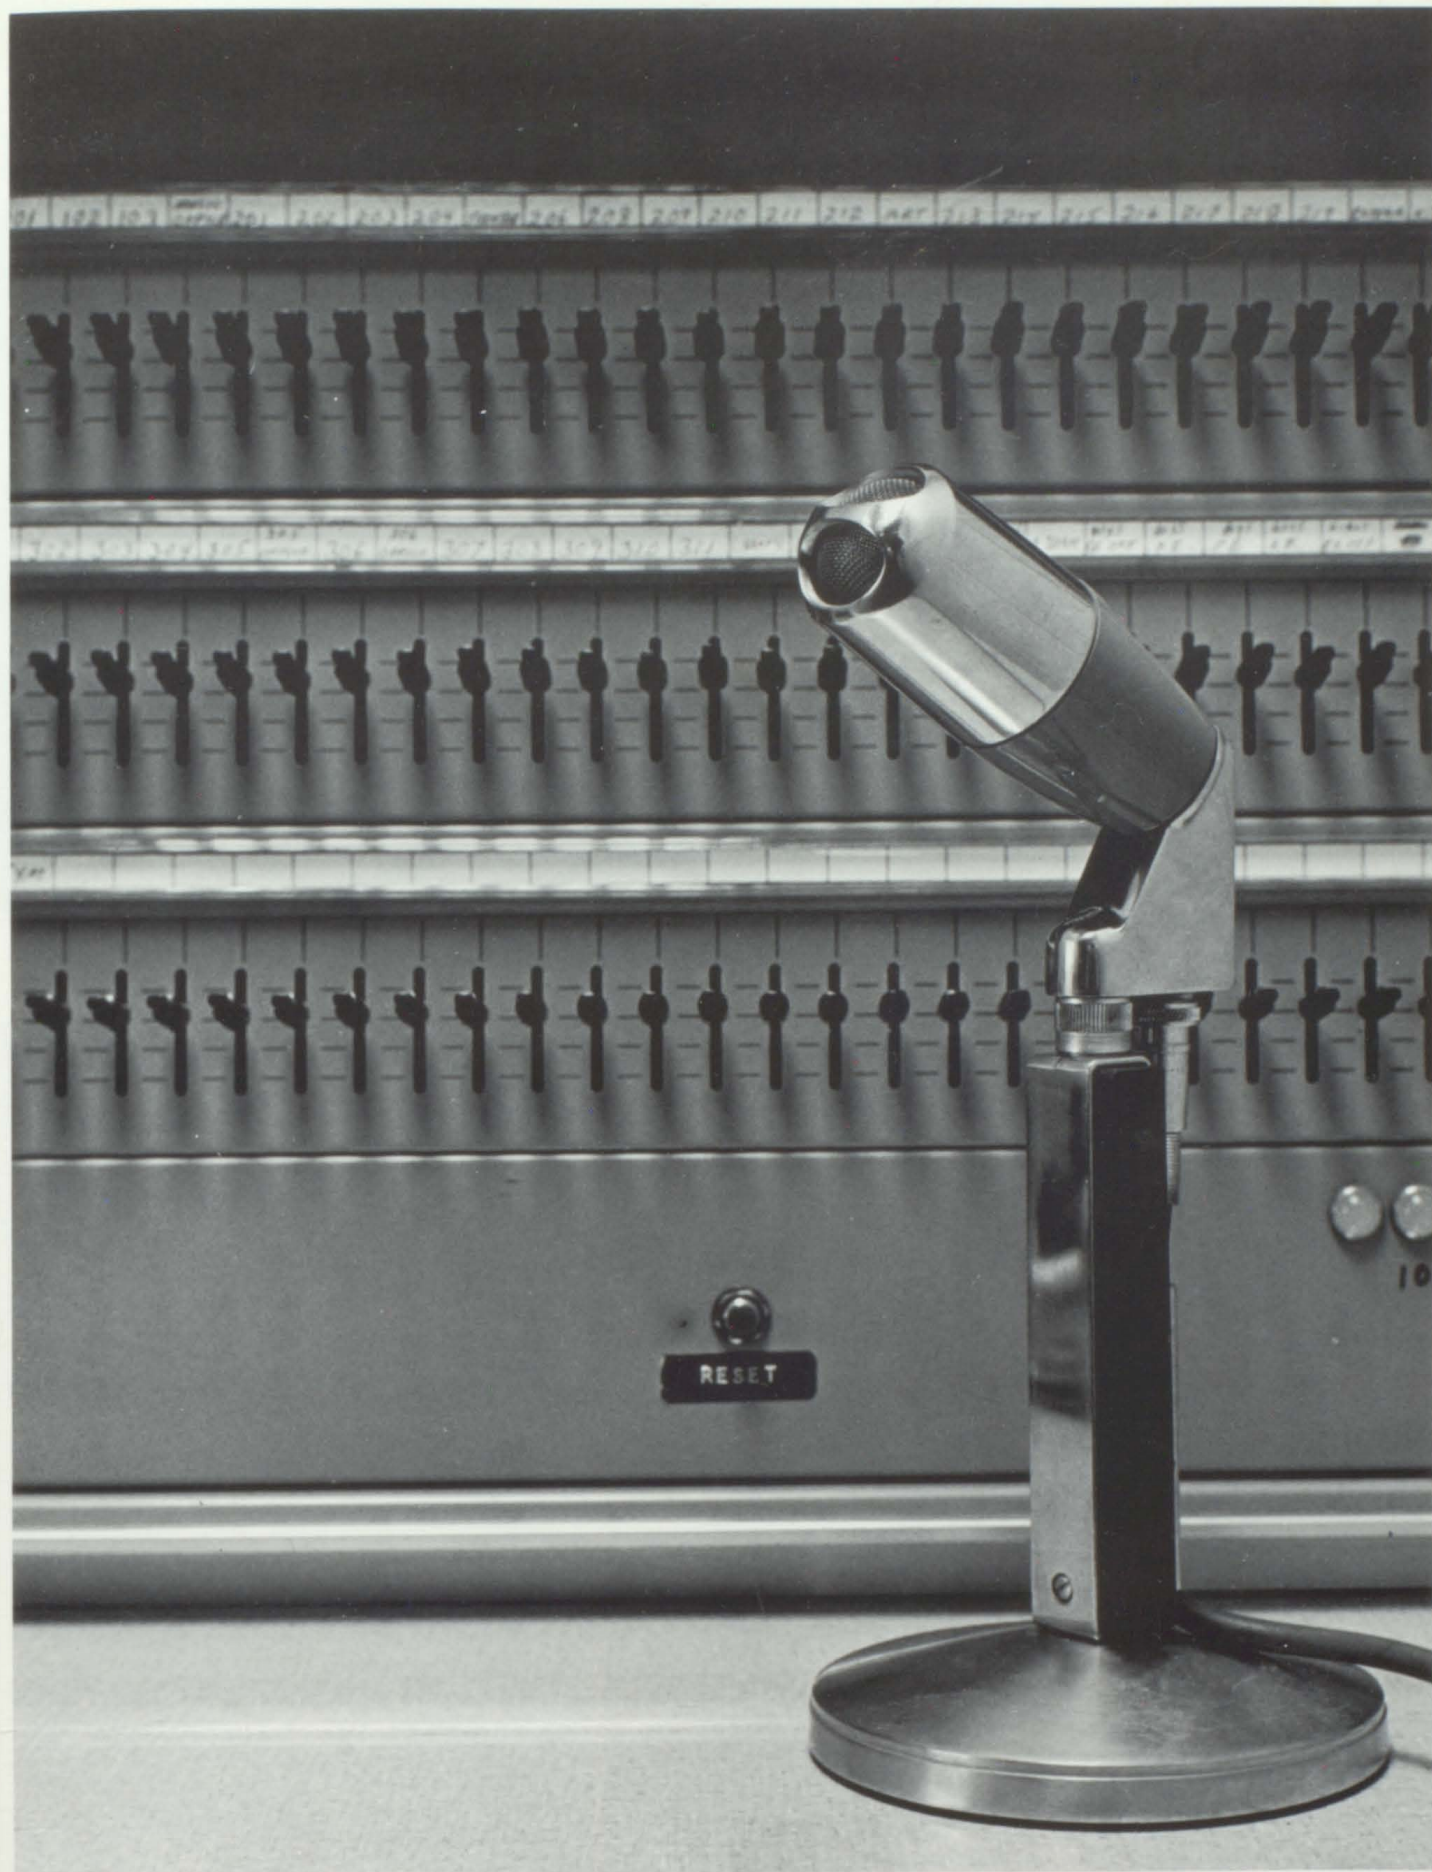

Yours sincerely,

Principal's Message

I am proud of the 1968 Tiger. Moreover, I am proud of the 1968 Tiger staff. It is with gratitude and a deeply-felt joy that I Congratulate you on this tremendous proof of maturity, responsibility, sincerity and ability. The fact that you have found your years here meaningful is truly revealed in the MOMENTS WE SHARED between these covers. Traversing through the pages is a sojourn worthy of remembrance. My fond hope is that each of the experiences whose images are imprinted in this book has contributed to your growth in such a way that your later lives will be rich, prosperous and powerful.

Well Viewers,

We have chosen many precious moments, and these pages can only reflect the highlights. My greatest wish is that what we have recorded here will be a lasting impression for each of you.

In years to come, perhaps each of these moments will be more and more meaningful and will serve as a mirror of the many other joyous occasions we knew during our years of learning at Dear Ole B-H.

Whole-Souled,

Elsie
